Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

World Health Organization

CODEX ALIMENTARIUS
INTERNATIONAL FOOD STANDARDS

Showcasing Efforts to Ensure Sustainable Food Safety Leadership and Advocacy

Language: English

07/July/2026
13.00 - 14.00

Plenary Hall, Centre International de Conférences de Genève (CICG)

SIDE EVENT ORGANISED BY SWITZERLAND

OBJECTIVE:

Sustaining efforts to ensure food safety leadership and advocacy as well as the efficient application of national food standards based on Codex standards is of paramount importance.

There are many stakeholders involved in ensuring food safety. Indeed, competent authorities, the food industry including primary food producers, food processors, manufacturers, retailers as well as caterers and consumers, all have specific roles to play.

Distinguished Members of the Panel

1. China
2. Costa Rica
3. European Union
4. The Gambia
5. India
6. New Zealand
7. The Sultanate of Oman

In this Side Event, Codex Members will showcase their efforts to ensure sustainable food safety leadership and advocacy. They will also share their experiences and best practices aimed at ensuring the efficient application of national food safety and quality standards based on Codex standards by all relevant stakeholders in order to protect the health of consumers and ensure fair practices in the food trade.

Lunch, including vegetarian dishes and beverages, will be served to all participants at the end of the Side Event.